TELECINE 2.Ext. Country Road. Day.

We see the police car slowing wildly as the DOCTOR pulls at the wheel. The car swings back again as DOCTOR WHO is temporarily stunned. The driver overcorrects and the car swerves completely off the road and bumps to a stop. Tipped crazily to one side, in a pile of gravel left by a road gang.

The rear door is hanging open and JO crawls out. She reaches back to help DOCTOR WHO - who is already struggling clear.

DOCTOR WHO: Run, Jo! Run for your life!

They race off into woods fringing the road. We see the AUTONS smashing at the jammed front door. They burst it open and tumble out in pursuit.

Ext. Country Road. Day.

Further back along the same road, we see the UNIT JEEP coming along.

YATES is driving. The BRIGADIER is looking thoughtful.

BRIGADIER: Faster, Yates.

YATES: This isn't the way to Tarninster, sir.

BRIGADIER: That's what I mean.

TELECINE: 2 (contd)

YATES foot tramps on the accelerator.
Suddenly the BRIGADIER leans forward.

BRIGADIER: Look!

YATES shrieks the jeep
to a halt.

Ext. Country Road. Day.

YATES, and the
BRIGADIER leap out.
They look at the abandoned
police car, its doors banging open. The
BRIGADIER unsnaps the flap of his holster.

BRIGADIER: Come on!

As they dash towards the woods.

Ext. Woodland. Day.

DOCTOR WHO and JO are making furtive progress
through the trees.
Suddenly an AUTON POLICEMAN breaks out of the undergrowth in front of them. It points its arms. Its hand snaps down and the wrist-tube protrudes. JO gives a shriek, DOCTOR WHO pulls her sideways. A bolt flashes through the air
she recently vacated.
DOCTOR WHO and JO run.
The AUTON aims again.
They dodge behind the trunk of a broad tree.
A bolt crashes into the tree, smashing off a foot-thick section of smouldering wood.

NEW ANGLE:

The BRIGADIER and YATES stop running. They hear the hiss and crump of the AUTON weapons.

BRIGADIER: This way.

They dash off again, revolvers in hand.

NEW ANGLE:

DOCTOR WHO and JO are crouching breathlessly behind a fallen tree. The TWO AUTONS emerge from the bushes on the farther side of the clearing. They look round, senses questing... The BRIGADIER and YATES appear and open fire. The AUTONS are hit but impervious. They turn to blast at the SOLDIERS. The BRIGADIER sees DOCTOR WHO and JO. He gestures.

BRIGADIER: Back to the jeep!
We'll cover you.

DOCTOR WHO and JO slip away. YATES and the BRIGADIER continue firing and dodging back as the AUTONS advance. Some of the UNIT SOLDIERS are killed in the fighting.

Ext. Country Road. Day.

DOCTOR WHO and JO come out of the woodland and, keeping low, dash to the unit jeep. Behind them we can still hear the sounds of battle. DOCTOR WHO flings himself behind the wheel. As JO joins him he starts the engine and pumps a signal on the car hooter.

JO: What were those things?

DOCTOR WHO: Autons...Tell you later...

The BRIGADIER,
and YATES - and any surviving SOLDIERS dash from the woods and pile into the back of the car.

BRIGADIER: Right, Doctor!

DOCTOR WHO has already let the clutch out. As the jeep accelerates away, the AUTONS come out of the woods.
One aims a final flash as the jeep speeds away out of range.
